Volunteers

Come be a part of the action by volunteering for the 2008 Women's Final Four! A variety of activities and shifts are available from March 31 through April 9. We're looking for volunteers to greet visitors arriving at the airports and hotels, participate at Hoop City's interactive fan experience, assist coaches and participants at the WBCA Convention, or work the Bay Rally that will kick off the Bounce By The Bay. Visit www.NCAAMarchMadness2008.com/womens to view the full list of volunteer activities and shifts, and to register to be part of the 2008 Women's Final Four!

Parents and guardians are encouraged to accompany their children, but will be charged admission to Hoop City.

YES® Clinics Fueled by POWERADE®

Date: Saturday, April 5, 2008

Location: University of South Florida Sun Dome,

Jefferson High School and Hillsborough High School.

Admission: Free admission (youth between 10-16 years of age).

Hours: 9 a.m. to Noon

Interested participants will need to register online at www.ncaa.com/yesclinic. The Youth Education through Sports (YES) Program is the NCAA's premier outreach to youth across the country. Kids (ages 10 through 16) will have the opportunity to receive sport instruction from NCAA coaches and student-athletes; gain conditioning tips to improve their athletic performance, as well as learn life skills and sportsmanship which are helpful in becoming a successful student-athlete. The clinics include a session for parents and guardians to discuss issues of sportsmanship, wellness, injury prevention, NCAA academic and athletic requirements and "life as a NCAA student-athlete."
